Greetings from ASNE Flagship: Your 2018 Section of the Year!

Fellow ASNE Flagship Members, our 2018-2019 technical program year is flying by. Since our last newsletter, we have held presentations by CAPT Casey J. Moton, USN in February, CAPT Keith Lehnhardt, USN in March, and Virginia Tech/US Naval Academy Students in April. Congratulations to Flagship’s DCEES Engineer of the Year 2018 submission, Dr. Danny Georgiadis, on being selected as this year’s winner in February! Flagship also provided judges and prizes for the 2019 NoVa Regional Science & Engineering Fair in March. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place award winners received a cash prize and 1st place also received one free year of ASNE membership sponsored by Flagship. We are pleased to announce that ASNE Flagship Section was awarded the 2018 Section of the Year for the third year in a row! Section of the Year is a direct reflection of our dedicated membership base so thank you to you all!

Midshipmen from the US Naval Academy present on their Coastal Cruiser design at the annual joint ASNE/SNAME Student Papers Night on April 30th. The event was graciously hosted by CACI and ASNE Member, CDR Angel Salinas, USN (Ret), emceed.

Warm Welcomes for Flagship Members!
Flagship would like to welcome CAPT Dale Lumme, USN (Ret) as our new ASNE Executive Director who has hit the ground running working on the ASNE HQ move! Dr. Leigh McCue has taken over as Editor in Chief of the Naval Engineers Journal. A big “thank you” to Frank DeBord for his years of NEJ service.

Welcome are also in order for Flagship members joining National Officer and Council positions: President - RADM Mark Hugel, USN(Ret.) Council - CAPT Gregg W. Baumann, USN (Ret.), CAPT Thomas Remmers, USCG, Mr. Thomas A. Schubert, CAPT Mark R. Vandroff, USN, and Dr. Jennifer Waters.
