We cordially invite you to attend the ASNE Flagship Technical Program:

CAPT(N) KRISTJAN W.A. MONAGHAN, CD
CANADIAN JOINT NAVAL DEFENCE ATTACHÉ

Topic: Canadian Naval Programs

Date: Thursday, January 23, 2020; 1130-1300

Capt(N) Kristjan Monaghan joined the Canadian Forces in 1992 and attended the Royal Military College in Saint-Jean (RMC) Saint-Jean, and graduated from the Royal Military College (RMC) Kingston, in 1997 with a Degree in Business Administration.

On completion of his naval training, he joined HMCS CHARLOTTETOWN and deployed on a six month NATO deployment as a Bridge watch keeper and served again as the ship’s Navigation Officer from 2000-2002; where he deployed on back to back deployments: OP AUGMENTATION with the USS HARRY S TRUMAN Battlegroup in 2001 in the Persian Gulf and OP APOLPOLLO as part of Canada’s response on the war on terror after the attacks on the world trade center in September 2001.

Upon his return, he was posted as the Assistant Fleet Scheduler at the Maritime Forces Atlantic Headquarters from 2002-2004. After completing his Operation Room Officer Course, he sailed in HMCS TORONTO as the Deputy Combat Officer and as the Operations Officer and Combat Officer in HMCS CHARLOTTETOWN in 2006; where he was deployed again to the Middle East for OP ALTAIR ROTO 3 integrated with the USS HARRY S TRUMAN Battlegroup.

On completion of OP ALTAIR, he was posted to Sea Training Atlantic from 2008-2010 as both the Weapons and Combat Officer. In 2011, he graduated from the Canadian Forces Joint Command Staff Programme in Toronto with a Masters in Defence Studies. In July 2011, he was appointed Executive Officer of HMCS ST. JOHN’s where he deployed on various force generation sails and 3 Canada Command Missions (OP NANOOK and 2 OP CARIBBES).

In the summer of 2012, he was appointed as Executive Officer of Sea Training Atlantic and was subsequently promoted in June 2013 to Commander. He was posted to the Canadian Joint Operations Command in Ottawa as the Director of the Canadian Forces Integrated Command Centre, responsible for the Canadian Armed Forces 24/7 operational and strategic command and control centre. In July 2014, he assumed command of HMCS MONTREAL and was responsible for the ship’s modernisation programme, cyclone embarkation sea trials and Canada’s participation in the Maritime Theatre Missile Defence Mission off the coast of Scotland with 10 allied countries.

Captain(N) Monaghan was promoted to his present rank in 2017 and appointed Canadian Joint Naval Defence Attaché in Washington D.C where he currently resides with his wife and his two daughters.
